JURY TO DECIDE ON RHUM GAMES

Must Determine Whether Winner Receiving Two Checks Worth
10c in Trade is Gambling

CASE UP IN CIRCUIT COURT

James Kratzer and John Wolter, Who Allow Playing of the Game, Are on Trial

Whether playing the game of rum in which the winner receives two checks worth five cents each in trade and the loser pays ten cents to the house for the game, is gambling, was the question to be decided by the jury which heard the case in circuit court against James Kratzer and John Wolter, charged with operating a gaming place. The case was expected to go to the jury shortly before four o'clock this afternoon.

The state rested its case at the noon hour and the defense did not introduce any evidence, making it possible to start the closing arguments at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Each side was given one hour for the final argument. Prosecutor Stevens opened for the state. Gates Ketchum and George W. Young defended both Kratzer and Wolter.

The two men were indicted jointly last June by the grand jury. They were tried together today. Kratzer and Wolter operate a pool room in West Second street, although the evidence brought out the fact that there are no pool tables there now and have not been for several months. Considerable interest was shown in the case as the future of the game of rum in this city as played in the various pool rooms depends on the outcome of this trial.

Practically all of the witnesses for the state testified to the same things. The game itself was described to the jury. All of the men testifying stated that there were three or four tables in the room for use as rum tables. The winner in the game gets two checks worth five cents in trade each, and the loser pay the house the sum of ten cents for each game. The men testified that some time they won and some time they lost. The game is usually participated in by four players, and

WORK FOR ENTERTAINMENT

Young Men's Circle Expects Big Crowd to See Chic Jackson

Members of the Young Men's Circle of the Main Street Christian Sunday school are working indus-triously to fill the auditorium of the church for the entertainment to be given Tuesday evening, December 5 by Chic Jackson, cartoonist, and Everett Davis, expert paper cutter.
Jackson, as everyone knows, is responsible for Roger Bean, his wife and Golduh in the Indianapolis Star, having originated those quaint characters. Davis is a scissors caricaturist who can do wonders with a plain piece of paper. Tickets are on sale at Humes and Buell's and by members of the class. A large number have already been sold.

FILES CLAIM ON HUSBAND'S ESTATE

Widow of Late Jesse Winship Says Husband Promised Her Half
From Sale of Farm

SHARES BY LAW OF DESCENT

Mrs. Alma Winship, widow of the late Jesse Winship, following her election to share in the estate under the laws of descent rather than under the terms of the will, has filed a claim against the estate for the sum of $5,975. Under the terms of the will Mrs. Winship was to receive $500 in cash, five shares of stock in the Rushville National bank and then come in for her one-third of the rest of the property.

Under the law of descent she will share in one-third of all of the estate and have a life interest in the estate. In the claim, which has been placed on the entry docket for trial, Mrs. Winship alleges that her husband told her if she would sign a deed for their farm of 120 acres he would give her one-half of the sale price which was $11,400. Under this she would receive $5,700.
She also claims an interest in some hogs and personal property, bring-
to $5,975.

The Orme Transfer company has moved into the newly erected garage at the southeast corner of the intersection of the alleys back of the postoffice.

MIX RELIGION WITH BUSINESS

How Mormons Inter-Twine Their Activities Will be Discussed
Mrs. Lulu Shepard

SPEAKS HERE THURSDAY P. M.

She Presents Vital Facts With Breezy Familiarity Acquired Through Residence in Utah

It was only because she was coming to Indianapolis to address the W. C. T. U. that the Rushville Ministerial association was able to get Mrs. Lulu Loveland Shepard, who speaks on the Mormon question tonight at seven-thirty o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. The meeting will be a union affair under the auspices of the ministerial association.

To show it is not an old issue but a modern, 1916 question to be dealt with now, is the purpose of Mrs.
Shepard, who is known as one of the best if not the best female orator today.

Mrs. Shepard is president of the W. C. T. U. and in that position she learned at first hand just how the Mormons inter-twine their religion with their business and their politics with their religion to the end that none may know where one ends and the other begins, according to a statement sent out by the National Reform association.

She presents her vital facts with a breezy familiarity that compels growing interest even from hostile audiences. She is eloquent to the last degree and she knows the Mormon question from its inception up to today.

Back of the efforts of Mrs. Shepard stands the National Reform Association with headquarters in Pittsburgh, Pa., from which center the crusade against the spread of
Rev. Dr. James S. Martin with the co-operation of Frank J. Cannon, the first United States senator elected by Utah upon acquiring statehood. The crusade is sweeping the entire country with renewed velocity born of the fact that the Mormons are now canvassing war stricken Europe for female converts to polygamy with a view to importing into the United States a great mass of young women at the end of the war who may be relied upon to embrace the immoralities of polygamy along with the great economic system fostered by the rulers of the Mormon Kingdom.

The National Reform Association has petitioned Secretary of State Lansing to prevent all such immigration and an amendment to the federal constitution is now proposed under the terms of which modern polygamy will be utterly impossible.

she was 8 years old and was used to call plantation workers

DECISION GIVEN HERE REVERSED

Appellate Court Holds Johanna Quirk is Not Entitled to Fourth

BASED ON EXCEPTIONS MADE

Question of Law Involved in Case
Said to be Decided for First Time in Indiana

The appellate court yesterday reversed the Rush circuit court in the case tried here under the title of
Kirk, administratrix of the estate of the late Bartholemew Kirk. The case was based on the exceptions to a report filed by the Mrs. Quirk in which she set up a claim to one-fourth of the personal property of the estate. Most of the personal property was consumed in settling the estate and the court gave Mrs.
Kirk the balance of the personal property. Judge Raymond Springer heard the case and it was appealed from his decision by Kiplinger and Smith, attorneys for Mrs.
Quirk. Howard E. Barrett represented the estate.

Justice McNutt handed down the decision yesterday in the appellate court. Mrs. Quirk was the mother of Bartholemew Kirk and Mrs. Kirk, the widow and administratrix. The question of law involved is said to be decided for the first time in Indiana in this case. It is not likely that the case will be tried again, but that the estate will now be settled under the ruling of the higher court.
The full decision of the court is as follows:

(1) Appellant is mother of deceased, while appellee is widow and the administratrix of the estate, there being no children of the decedent. The estate consisted of $4,- 300 of real estate and $2,530 of personal property. All of the personal property except $466.94 was consumed in the administration, and the appellee filed a report showing such fact and claiming that appellant's one-fourth must be first exhausted before applying her three-fourths to the payment of debts and costs of administration and that the net balance of $466.94 should be paid to her as widow, leaving appellant no part of the personal estate. The appellant filed exceptions to this report, but the trial court overruled the exceptions and gave the appellee, as widow, the whole of the net balance. This was error, as the widow and the surviving parent stand upon equal footing as to their respective portions of the personal estate of the decedent.

(2) The statute of descent and the statute of distribution of personal property are so differently worded that, although under Matthews vs. Pate, 93 Ind. 433, where lands are sold to pay debts, the interest of the parent must first be exhausted before using the widow's share under the statute for distribution of personal property, that

FIREMEN HAVE RABBIT FEED

The members of the fire department and police enjoyed a rabbit supper last night in the council chamber. Joe Williamson and Basil Seward furnished the rabbits and the spread was thrown in the room over the fire department. Those taking part in the affair were Joe Williamson, John Willis, William
Higgs, Walter Easley, William Moffett, Basil Seward, Marshall New-

BUILDING COLLAPSES

New York, Nov. 23.—One man was killed and six injured today when a three-story building in course of construction collapsed.

NEAR 2 AND HALF MILLION

Bank Deposits in Rushville on Nov.
17 Were $2,291,328.29

Since the controller of the euryrency at Washington has ordered national banks to publish statements of their condition at the close of business Friday, November 17, it is revealed that Rushville banks alone had on deposit on that day $2,291,- 328.29. This, of course, does not include the many banks in Rush county outside of Rushville. With them included, the total deposits would probably run over three and a half million. It is interesting to note that the banks of Columbus, over twice as large as Rushville, had on deposit the same day only

SPENT $1,619.60 IN COUNTY CAMPAIGN

Republicans File Expense Statement Through Treasurer, A.
L. Winship—Small Balance

SOME CANDIDATES EXPENSES

The republican central committee's treasurer, A. L. Winship, spent the sum of $1,619.60 in the campaign just closed, according to the expense statement placed on file in the office of the county clerk. The total receipts amounted to $1,- 741.26 and the committee has a balance on hands of $121.66. On March 15 there was a balance of $155.26 and this is included in the total amount of receipts.

of candidates at the recent election show that Howard E. Barrett, defeated candidate for joint senator, spent the sum of $102.17 and made no promises. J. F. Bowen, democratic candidate for coroner, spent the sum of $10. Dr. Lowell M. M. spent $12.50 $10 of which was given Green, the successful candidate for coroner, spent the sum of $26.50
and made no promises.

Charles C. Brown, defeated candidate for sheriff, spent the sum of 72.75 and made no promises. Fifty dollars of this sum was given to the central committee. Cliff Win-ship, defeated candidate for commissioner, spent $55. Edgar Thomas spent nothing and William Booth, the prohi candidate for auditor, spent $12.50, $10 of this was given to the national fund.

GIRL ASKS FOR $5,000 DAMAGES

Bertha Manning, 18 Years Old, Files Breach of Promise Suit Against
Chester L. Jinks

BOTH LIVE NEAR NEW SALEM

Plaintiff Sets Forth Written Statement Signed by Jinks Promising to Wed Her

A sensational breach of promise suit has been filed in the circuit court by Miss Bertha Manning, 18 years old, against Chester L. Jinks.
Miss Manning demands damages in the sum of $5,000. The litigants reside in the New Salem neighborhood and both are well known young people. The suit is brought by Robert Lee Manning, the girl's father, as her next friend, because the plaintiff is a minor.

The complaint alleges that he promised to marry her, the date of the wedding having been set for August 6, 1916. She claims to have a written memorandum to this effect, which was signed one year before the date for the wedding. The complaint alleges that upon August 6, 1915 the plaintiff promised the defendant to marry him upon Aug.
6, 1916.

The memorandum set out in the complaint is as follows: "August 6, 1915. I solemnly promise and swear to marry Bertha M. Manning August 6, 1916. Chester Jinks."

The plaintiff alleges that since she relied upon the defendant's promise she went to great expense and outlay in preparing for the wedding.
She claims that on August 6, 1916 she requested him to marry her and that he refused and has since refused. Miss Manning asserts that Jinks is the father of her child, which was born last June. Miss Manning is at present in the sanitorium in this city where she recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

The complaint states that by reason of the alleged breach of marriage contract she has suffered great humiliation, embarrassment, mortification, disgrace, distress of mind and nervous shock and has been damaged in the sum of $5,000.

The complaint is in two paragraphs, each paragraph reciting about the same allegations. The

T. W. BETKER IS NOW CONVINCED THAT WANT ADS DO BRING RESULTS

His Diamond Ring Which Disappeared in His Own Bathroom is Found Near Greenhouse

CARRIED IN TROUSERS CUFF

"You may quote me as saying that want ads do bring results," said T. W. Betker, after Clarence Rodney, colored, who found Mr.
Betker's diamond ring, had returned it to him and received the reward of
loss had not been advertised, I never would have recovered the ring."

The loss and subsequent recovery of the diamond which Mr. Betker valued at $400 will go down as the strangest case of the sort on record here. Mr. Betker's theory proved right—that the ring had caught in the cuff of his trousers while he was cleaning it and lost out when he went to the greenhouse.

The ring was found in front of Moore's greenhouse last Friday, the day after it was lost. It was on

Thursday night that Mr. Betker, while cleaning the ring, lost it in his own bathroom and he was considerably mystified when he failed to discover it any place in the house.
He tore up the plumbing and made a thorough examination of the trap.
Mr. Betker now believes that he never had the ring in the bottle of alcohol as he thought. It is his opinion that when he started to place the ring in the bottle suspended on the end of a hairpin, that the ring was knocked off and fell in the cuff of his trousers. He shook the bottle a few times and when he went to take the ring out, it had disappeared.

After making a careful search through the bathroom that night, he rode to Moore's greenhouse with his brother-in-law, R. L. Tompkins, in an automobile. Arriving at the greenhouse, Mr. Tompkins did not stop but slowed down, and Mr. Betker was compelled to jump from the automobile. When he made the leap, the ring probably fell out of his trousers' cuff.

RUSH COUNTY MAN NEVER SHAVES, RIDES ON TRAIN OR GOES TO SHOWS

Jesse M. Perkins of Jefferson, Iowa, Admits, However, That he Suc-

WIFE NO TRAVELER EITHER

For pure, unadulterated "never-ness," Jesse M. Perkins, native of Rush county who left here 62 years ago, harkening to the call of the great west, seems to win the medal.
He now lives in Jefferson, Iowa, where he went from Rushville. The Minneapolis Journal prints a story from Jefferson, showing the things that Perkins "never" did. Here it is:

Married 60 years and never had a shave, rode on a railroad train or saw a moving picture show was the boast Jesse M. Perkins of Jefferson made last week when he and his wife celebrated their wedding anniversary.

Those were not Perkins' only claims to a niche in the hall of fame however. He has never worn a cap

been out of the state but once since he came here in 1853, has been out of the county only two or three times in the 62 years of his residence in Jefferson and helped to build the first house in the county.

But he rode in an automobile,
on a ride around the block just for fun.

Mrs. Perkins has as many claims to distinction as her husband has.
She, too, has never been on a railroad train. She never saw a moving picture show. She never wore a cap and she has not been out of the
with her parents in 1854.

"The old man's got nothing on me," said Mrs. Perkins at the anniversary celebration. "I've been mar-
done precious few things that I haven't done."

Jefferson is in Green county; it's the county seat. There are five lines

RED CROSS STARTS
ANNUAL CAMPAIGN

Nine Million of the Little Seals Are Available at the New York Headquarters.

USUAL WARNING IS GIVEN

New York, Nov. 23.—The annual Christmas campaign of the Committee on Prevention of Tuberculosis of the National Red Cross, to raise funds for use in stamping out the White Plague is under way today. Nine million of the little "seals" for adornment of Christmas packages are now available at the New York headquarters. It is expected that at least 3 and one one-half millions will be sold in New York.

Out of experience of former years warning has been issued that the "seals" are not postage. They are merely decorations. Persons using them on mailed packages are cautioned not to forget to put on the required number of postage stamps as well.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 50-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Richmond, Ind., Nov. 22.—Poor children of Richmond narrowly escaped missing their annual Christmas dinner this year because of the high cost of living. The Richmond Penny Club, which in former years gave a Christmas dinner for the children, will not be able to do so this year because the cost now would be almost double that of last year. Other people have raised funds sufficient, however, and will carry out the custom.

Community Loyalty

It will not be long now until the holiday shopping will be in full swing, and before it opens we wish to have a few words with our fellow citizens on the question of how and where this holiday money is to be spent.

Whence came the money that you are intending to send to that mail order concern? Did it come from the city in which that concern is located? Not by a long shot. If you are a farmer it is the product of the soil. What soil? Why, the soil of your community. Now you, as a practical farmer, know full well the results of the ruinous practice of taking everything from your land and returning nothing to it. You know that this practice must sooner or later impoverish your soil and destroy your source of income.

Can't you realize that in sending your money away from home you are doing to the community just what you would not think of doing to your farm. Every dollar sent away from your community robs it of just that much of its power for good.

But perhaps you are not a farmer, but a mechanic, or trader. Then the responsibility rests even more heavily upon you to keep your money in the home channels of trade, because all of it came from the hard earnings of your neighbors

Yes, we say no right. No man has any right to be disloyal to his community. Deprive any man entirely of community support and he becomes a pariah—worse than a Robinson Crusoe, for he is among his kind but not of them. What loneliness could be more terrible?

If, then, you are thus dependent on your neighbors and friends, do you not owe them an equal allegiance? Are they to consult your interests while you ignore theirs? This were ingratitude of the basest sort.

Just suppose, you patron of the mail order house, that for a period of twelve months every citizen of your country followed your example and did all of his trading away from home? What condition would your county be in? Would there be a solvent merchant in it? Not one. What of your schools, your churches, and all the civilizing institutions of our land? They might still survive if you bare all expense—not otherwise.

Don't be an ingrate! If you have a dollar to spend, spend it at home. Thus it stays in the only spot on God's earth in which you are interested. Send it away and it is gone forever.

Is a Hog Like This Worth 20 Cts. More Than a Hog Like This?

YET—the fat, sleek one at the left cost only 20 cents more to bring to market than the weak, sickly "specimen" at the right, due to the use of Avalon Farms HOG-TONE.

This remedy—tried out thoroughly on the well-known Avalon Farms (in Indiana, near Ft. Wayne) has wrought wonderful results with hogs. It absolutely removes deadly Throat Worms—Stomach Worms—Liver Worms—Lung and Bronchial Worms. HOG-TONE not only keeps the hogs free from worms, in addition it is a first-class general conditioner—stimulates secretory and digestive organs. Thus it spurs on their appetites, makes them grow fatter faster, gives them the ability to get more flesh-building good out of feed.

There is nothing else like it. Farmers know its wonderful hog-saving, money-making value. We want every hog-raiser to know of it—to try it on his hogs.

We have stocked Avalon Farms HOG-TONE because we believe it a real money maker for the hog grower. Come in and talk to us about it.

Wash Poison From System Each Morning and Feel Fresh As a Daisy

Every day you clean the house you live in to get rid of the dust and dirt which collected through the previous day. Your body, the house your soul lives in, also becomes filled up each twenty-four hours with all manner of filth and poison. If only every man and woman could realize the wonders of drinking phosphated hot water, what a gratifying change would take place.

Everyone whether sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do. (Adv.)

EVANS TO CLING TO HIS TITLES

Says All Aspirants For the Honors Next Year Will Have to Display Real Golf.

BY HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
New York, Nov. 23.—When Chick Evans, the national open and amateur golf champion, visited New York recently after his triumph at the Merion club, Philadelphia, he told the United Press that in winning the national amateur champion he had vaulted into the highest point of his life's ambitions.

Fact of the matter is that it was just this point—considered the champion's weakest—which enabled him to defeat Robert Gardner for the national title, and which carried him to victory in the open tournament some time earlier. Of course, there were few times when Evans' nerves were strained by the nature of the putts he was forced to make, but the fact that he had lost many matches in his long career as a tournament player through poor putting made his performance stand out.

"I have learned to drive as I never drove before," Evans said.

"My machie shots have improved all summer and I want to say right here that it was with the greatest elation that I finished off the hole which gave me the title."

Evans several times has been runner-up in national tourneys and has finished there or thereabouts in many high class meets, but the one big plum he was after the national amateur tournament—always has been just out of his reach.

Evans assured the United Press that if some golfer is to take the championship from him next year he'll have to play some regular championship golf to do it.

"I've got that championship," Evans said, "and I mean to keep it as long as I can."

FARMERS START MINING OWN COAL

Princeton, Ind., Nov. 23.—The high price of coal has caused farmers near Princeton to believe they can make more money out of stripping their land and selling the coal which lies underneath than they can out of farming.

Such drastic action is not necessary, according to a statement made to the United Press today by H. L. Snodgrass, assistant state entomologist.

Spraying of apple trees is the proper method of elimination of cedar rust, according to Snodgrass. The trees must be sprayed several times a year and must be given careful, attention to be kept free from rust.

This method has been tried in other fruit sections and has been found effective, he stated.

The earth is blessed with the one, simple, painless, never-failing remedy that makes millions of corn-pestered people happy, and that's “GETS-IT”. Apply it in 3 seconds. It dries. Wednesday Afternoon Card Club, with Mrs. O. M. Dale at 424 North Main street, in the afternoon.

Friday Afternoon Embroidery Club, with Mrs. Clarence Carr of Glenwood in the afternoon.

Miss Dora Saxon entertained the members of the Priscilla Art Club of Raleigh at her home in Glenwood this afternoon.

The pitch-in supper, which was to have been given tomorrow evening for the members of the Embroidery Club at the home of Mrs. John A. Tittsworth in North Main street, has been postponed until Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Innis are entertaining at their pretty country home near Milroy with a series of Rook parties. Last evening, 24 of their friends from Milroy were invited in to spend a jolly evening playing Rook. Delicious refreshments were served late during the affair.

This evening, the same number of guests are to be entertained with a similar affair. The guests are to be from Milroy.

Mrs. W. S. Coleman and Mrs. Roy Mayse, both of whom formerly lived in Carthage, entertained several of their mutual friends from there today. A prettily appointed dinner was served at the home of Mrs. Coleman at noon today for the guests and part of the day was spent at the home of Mrs. Mayse. The old friends reuniting in this delightful way were: Mrs. Fred White, Mrs. F. M. Miller, Miss Hazel Hill, Miss Helen Gause, all of Carthage, and Miss Ada Brown of Charlottesville.

A birthday surprise was given at noon today for Mary Louise Miller by her mother, Mrs. Harry Sparks, at their home in North Jackson street when a number of girl friends came in for dinner. With a birthday cake on which were the dates, 1902-1916, the center of the table was prettily decorated. A delicious course meal was served to the guests including Helen Thomas, Helen Matlock, Joan Weakley, Esther Wagoner, Laverne Bishop and Ruby Sparks.

An announcement of interest in this city is that of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Powell, who until a few years ago made her home in this city. Since that time she has made frequent visits here, renewing her acquaintances. The following account of her announcement is from the Fort Wayne Journal.

Twenty young lady friends of Miss Elizabeth Powell were invited to her home in New Haven, to an eight o'clock luncheon, Friday evening. The party proved to be one of charming appointments and the nature of it was a complete surprise to everyone present for Miss Powell announced her engagement to Charles J. Cortleyou, of Connersville. The rooms were decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums and a color scheme of red and white was carried out in the dining room. A large red bell was suspended over the dining table from which white ribbons led to each plate and held souvenirs of red and white carnations for the guests. A pull at the ribbon brought down a shower of red hearts, which when opened, displayed the photographs of Miss Powell and her fiancé. Just before the heart shower a telegram was brought to the house and handed to Miss Aileen Ashley, who read it aloud to the assembled guests, and in this manner the engagement was announced. The table held a center arrangement of red and white carnations and a four course luncheon was served, the ice cream being frozen into the shape of cupids. Miss Powell received the hearty congratulations of her friends.

A short meeting of Tri Kappa was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Knecht last evening when several matters of business importance were discussed by the members.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Harrold were pleasantly surprised last night on the occasion of their fifth wedding anniversary, by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Neutenzelher and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harrold, and families. A bountiful pitch-in supper was served.

The third meeting of the Donnan class will be held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. G. Hackleman in North Morgan street. At the last meeting, Miss Donnan announced that she would talk on Georgian Poetry, 1913-1915, and “The Brook Kerith” by George Morris.

At the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eskew about 45 guests enjoyed a pitch-in supper Saturday evening. The home was decorated with pink and white carnations. While games were being played and the guests were enjoying a general good time, beautiful music was furnished on the gramophone.

The banquet given at the Masonic Temple last evening was attended by 65 Knights Templar. The tables were lit by red candles and a two-course banquet was served. Following, there was an informal program of after-dinner talks. Will M. Sparks, Will McMillin, and Dr. J. B. Kinsinger all gave short and appropriate speeches. During the evening, the Temple degree was conferred.

The Ladies Aid society of the First Baptist church had the regular weekly meeting yesterday afternoon with Mrs. B. W. Reynolds, when the ladies spent a busy afternoon in preparation for the bazaar. On account of the church not being completed by that time, it was necessary to postpone the bazaar and penny supper which to have been held on Tuesday of next week, until Friday December 8th.

There will be a mask party and oyster supper at the Circleville schoolhouse on Monday evening, November 27th at 8 o'clock. Everyone is invited to come and a good time is assured. There will be fortune tellers; a large angel food cake for the best masked person; a box of candy to be given away; peanut races; and a bowl of oyster soup for a nickel; and many other attractions. The teachers in charge of the social are the Misses Jessie Gillispie, Edith Hogsett, and Lois Bussell.

The local chapter of the W. R. C. made a very favorable impression upon Mrs. Groves of Knightstown who came to inspect the chapter yesterday afternoon. The inspection was made at the Red Men hall when the degree work was conferred. Aside from Mrs. Groves, out-of-town members of the order present were Mrs. Mary Conover of Arizona, a charter member of the organization; Mrs. Elizabeth Pearsey, who recently moved to Muncie and was senior-president of the Corps; Mrs. Round of Knightstown; and Mrs. Phillips of Arlington.

Pink and white was the dainty color scheme carried out at the meeting of the Day Time Club held with Mrs. Louis C. Hiner at her home in North Willow street yesterday afternoon. Chrysanthemums and candles of these shades decorated the dining table, where the guests were seated for an elegant two course luncheon, after enjoying a social afternoon together. Mrs. Walter Hall, one of the club members has recently moved to Shelbyville, and all of the members but one were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Roscoe Ward.

Every one invited to come to our Box Social and penny supper at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening, at 5:30 o'clock. 21612.

TO HELP WOMEN GET WORK HERE

Indiana Branch of Federal Movement, Opened in Indianapolis With Grace Hopkins in Charge.

INTERCHANGE IS POSSIBLE

In Case There Are no Positions in The State, They May be Obtained Elsewhere.

An Indiana branch of the Federal end of the “Woman Movement”—known officially as the Women and Girls Division of the U. S. Employment Service, has been opened in Indianapolis, with headquarters in Room 235, Federal Building, with Mrs. Grace Porter Hopkins, of the U. S. Department of Labor, temporarily in charge.

The purpose of this new branch of Governmental service is to supply employment to the women and girls of the State. If no position of the kind desired are available in Indiana, an effort will be made to secure one through an interchange and interstate system between zones and offices of the United States Employment Service, co-operating with other States and municipal employment offices; also with co-operating employment committees in churches, women's federated clubs and other organizations.

Special attention will be given to requests of women wage earners for work and every effort will be made to meet the demand for female help in farming and rural communities as well as in the cities. Girls and young women will also be helped to select suitable vocations and directed to elementary and vocational training with a view to developing more efficient wage earners, the avoidance of occupations and places where evil conditions exist, as well as protection from exploitation and misdirection will be no small part of this branch of the work.

The co-operation of employers is invited in developing this plan for a clearing house of information with reference to employment; likewise the aid and assistance of women and other organizations is being sought by correspondence and other ways.

Applicants will be classified as to age so that only those over the age of 16 years shall be considered for or directed to employment; all those approaching as well as those above the latter age, will be given the information on hand in aid of vocational selection and training. Opportunities will be classified in accordance with the practice followed in public employment offices in the vicinity, if any exist; if not, then according to the trades and vocations there established, and divided in three classes as follows: temporary, seasonal, and permanent.

Applicants will be furnished information about opportunities listed

THE MODERN WAY

The modern housewife does not convert her home into a factory, at least to the extent of making it more of an industrial institution than it is a home. Instead of baking their own bread, thousands of housewives are getting it from the bakery. Likewise, canned goods are not put up in the home, but purchased from the grocer. Clothing is not made in the home, as in the days of your grandmother; it is purchased outside, and delivered to you, ready to wear. Then why not do the logical thing in another case, and send your household linens and washable apparel to a modern power laundry? Washing and ironing are factory processes, that for at least one day in each week render the average home almost uninhabitable. Perhaps you have found this out, and are having all or part of your laundering done in the home of a washerwoman. If you will let us do your laundering, you can rest assured that it is being done under sanitary conditions and in a sanitary manner.

Give us a trial order, and then you will be a regular customer—happy and care free on Monday, as far as laundering is concerned.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 23.—The ten cent tip in St. Paul was officially tabooed by resolutions of the Hotel Bellmen of St. Paul today. As the intermission between the icewater glide and the suitcase shuffle, at the annual bellmen's ball, resolutions were passed, urging that tips be raised to 15 cents on account of the war. During the ball, the orchestra director was under orders to ring no bells with the music, and no water pitchers were allowed in sight. "What's the use of taking the joy out of life?" E. J. ## GIVES MEN NEW LEASE ON LIFE

Head of Medical Corps Declares Work at Mexican Border Adds Years to Lives of Men.

DIET IS CONSIDERED IDEAL

BY WEBB MILLER.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 23.—About 150,000 years is being added to the aggregate life of the population of the United States by the Mexican "situation." Instead of spreading death and disablement the campaign in Mexico and the mobilization of the national guard is adding from a few months to years to the life of every civilian soldier, army physicians declare. Statisticians have figured that the average added to the life of each guardsman will be nearly a year.

After four to six months of training like an athlete, working in the open air, sleeping in a tent and eating simple food a hundred thousand guardsmen will go back to civil life with a new lease on life.

Major James F. Edwards of the medical corps of the Pennsylvania militia has been making a close study of the general effects of the intensive training upon these men drawn from office, factory and farm. In civil life he is director of Public Health of the city of Pittsburgh.

"Nearly every man on the border will be benefited immeasurably by the training he is undergoing," said Major Edwards. "In most cases the instruction in personal hygiene and right living will influence the militiamen for years.

"Even now the difference in the health of our men can be noticed. Several months of daily exercise in the open air and sleeping in a tent cannot but benefit. It is worth a dozen vacations rolled into one.

"But most important is the effect of the army diet. Most civilians eat too much. And intemperance in eating is more dangerous than any other form of intemperance. For four months our men have been eating the simple palatable army ration. They don't eat too much and the food value of what they get is computed scientifically. This regime with plenty of exercise cannot fail to add something to the lives of our citizen soldiers."

But there is no pleasing everybody. To the man undergoing this training it sometimes loses the vacation—physical training tinge and becomes just hard labor.

WILSON REPLIES TO HUGHES MESSAGE

President Answers Defeated Candidate's Telegram Congratulations Sent Last Night

WHAT HUGHES HAD TO SAY

Washington, Nov. 23.—President Wilson today replied to the message of Charles E. Hughes congratulating the president on his re-election, saying:

"I am sincerely obliged to you for your message of congratulation. Allow me to assure you of my good wishes for the years to come."

Hughes Message

Lakewood, N. J., Nov. 23.—Charles E. Hughes, republican candidate for President in the recent election, last night sent to President Wilson a telegram congratulating him upon his re-election. In his telegram Mr. Hughes said:

"Because of the closeness of the vote, I have awaited the official count in California and now that it has been virtually completed, permit me to extend to you my congratulations upon your re-election. I desire also to express my best wishes for a successful administration."

Marshall replied immediately, saying:

Jefferson. The town is on the main line of the North Western and 24 passenger trains, to say nothing of freights, run through the town every day. And neither Mr. nor Mrs. Perkins have ever been on a train.

After 79 years of life without having touched a razor to his face, Mr. Perkins has a beard that is the wonder of the small boys and the nightmare of the barbers—the latter fearing that some day or other he will take a notion to see his own features and will come into their shop to get his beard shaved off.

Sixty-two years ago Perkins left his home in Rushville, Ind., to seek his fortune in the west. Another young fellow came along with him. The friend had a team and wagon and the two boys drove every mile of the way. When they reached what is now Green county they decided they had found the place for which they were looking, so they stopped off.

Shortly thereafter young Perkins helped build the first house in Jefferson. It was a one-room log affair and housed the postoffice, hotel storeroom, the county records and office of the county judge, as well as a living room for the postmaster and his wife.

The next year settlers from the east began pouring into western Iowa and Perkins met and married Miss Nancy Tucker, who had come with her father, from Tippecanoe county, Indiana, making the trip in a wagon just as Mr. Perkins had done.

The only time since they came to the state that either Mr. or Mrs. Perkins has been outside the boundaries of Iowa was about 1857 when they drove over into Minnesota for the harvest and Mr. Perkins worked in the wheat fields. Then they returned to Jefferson and neither has been across the Missouri or the Mississippi. In fact, they have scarcely been outside the county in all those years.

The Perkins-Tucker wedding was the first to be celebrated in the county. The husband was 19 years old and the girl but 16.

Neither Mr. Perkins nor his wife believe in attending theaters and that's why they have never been to a moving picture show.

The other two do not share in the spoils.

The state contended that this constituted a game of chance as it was not certain who would win. The checks given the winners were good for tobacco, cigars, pop and merchandise carried by the firm. The defense on cross-examination always brought out from the witnesses that they never went there for the purpose of gambling, that the door was never barred and there was no one acting as lookout to admit the men to the place. The defense also brought out that the interior of the room was plainly visible from the street and that there was no indication on the part of the defendants that they were keeping a place for gaming, as charged in the indictment.

Among those who testified for the state were Elsbury Pea, Charles Pea, Alex Sorrell, Charles Wiley, Fred Hatfield, Jesse Sorrell, Charles Bennett, William Hardin, Patrick Hunt and Edward Gordon. All told practically the same story and each stated on cross-examination that they never went to the place with the intentions of gambling.

No much difficulty was had in securing a jury, which for the most part was composed of farmers. The jury was as follows: Edwin Megee, Samuel R. Newhouse, William A. Lord, John McCoy, M. A. McDonald, Eli Jinks, A. L. Chew, Bert Cohee, David T. Kirkpatrick, Rue Miller, George Keisling, John Manzy. Prosecutor Stevens this morning filed a written motion to dismiss the intoxication charge against George Hoffman for the reason that he is of unsound mind. The motion was sustained by the court.

No One Should Scorn Thrift

It is so very easy to say "Save money; put a certain amount away every week." But, oh, how hard it is to do. It just seems as though that dollar, or dime as the case may be, means a great deal to us when it comes to laying it away.

Every working girl, whether she receives a large remuneration or small, should endeavor to save some of it. I realize that sometimes every dollar is needed in the home; but then, five or cents may be spared. Depriving oneself of anything from a stick of gum to a ukelele will prove a moral victory and a comfort after the first pang it over.

Thrift is to be striven for by everyone of us. We all admire the thrift which is found in the German make-up, or that of the French and Belgians. These people conscientiously save whenever they can, and make a dollar go twice as far as most of us. The people of these nationalities can easily teach us a lesson here.

I am practicing what I preach in this instance, for every week when I draw my salary at the cashier's window, I lay aside a certain amount for a reserve. In fact, I immediately hand the money to my

secretary and she sees that it is deposited in bank that same afternoon. Of course when I first entered the movies I had to be content with a small saving every week. As my salary increased my deposit increased accordingly, and at present I have a savings account separate from my drawing account, and of which I am most proud.

A thrifty person never sits idle. If you were to visit the large Vitagraph studios in Brooklyn you would know the thrifty people at a glance. The biggest feminine stars in the profession earning large salaries, do not sit passive while waiting for their scenes. Their fingers are busy embroidering all sorts of beautiful things. Although I do not often embroider, I manage to occupy my time by making little dresses for the dear kiddies in an orphan home in which I am interested. And you would be surprised to know how many dresses I can get in that way for an amount I would pay for a ready-made one in the shops.

JURY TO DECIDE ON RHUM GAMES

James Kratzer and John Wolter,

rhum in which the winner receives
to the house for the game, is gambling,
and John Wolter, charged with operating a gaming place. The case
was expected to go to the jury
ternoon.

evidence brought out the fact that
the game of rhum in this city as played in the various pool rooms de-

things. The game itself was de-
use as rhum tables. The winner in

SHARES BY LAW OF DESCENT

Mrs. Ahna Winship, widow of the
the sum of $5,975. Under the terms

der this she would receive $5,700.
hogs and personal property, bring-
to $5,975.

Activities Will be Discussed

SPEAKS HERE THURSDAY P. M.

It was only because she was
get Mrs. Lulu Loveland Shepard,
sociation.

with now, is the purpose of Mrs.
Shepard, who is known as one of
today.

Mrs. Shepard is president of the
Reform association.

to today.

Rev. Dr. James S. Martin with the
co-operation of Frank J. Cannon,
gamy with a view to importing into
Kingdom.

The National Reform Association
has petitioned Secretary of State Lansing to prevent all such immi-

Appellate Court Holds Johanna

BASED ON EXCEPTIONS MADE

Question of Law Involved in Case

the late Bartholomew Kirk. The
the estate and the court gave Mrs.
er heard the case and it was appeal-
and Smith, attorneys for Mrs.
sented the estate.

court. Mrs. Quirk was the mother of Bartholomew Kirk and Mrs. Kirk, the widow and administratrix. The
as follows:

(1) Appellant is mother of de-
the administratrix of the estate,
there being no children of the decedent. The estate consisted of $4,
consumed in the administration,
should be paid to her as widow,
the personal estate of the decedent.

(2) The statute of descent and
lands are sold to pay debts, the in-

Williamson, John Willis, William
Higgs, Walter Easley, William Mof-

NEAR 2 AND HALF MILLION

Bank Deposits in Rushville on Nov.

Since the controller of the cur-
revealed that Rushville banks alone
had on deposit on that day $2,291,
note that the banks of Columbus,
over twice as large as Rushville,
$400,000 more.

Republicans File Expense Statement Through Treasurer, A.

the sum of $1,619.60 in the cam-
total receipts amounted to $1,-
ance on hands of $121.66. On
$155.26 and this is included in the total amount of receipts.

show that Howard E. Barrett, defeated candidate for joint senator,
no promises. J. F. Bowen, democratic candidate for coroner, spent the sum of $10. Dr. Lowell M.
Green, the successful candidate for
and made no promises.

dollars of this sum was given to
missioner, spent $55. Edgar Thomas
spent nothing and William Booth, the probi candidate for auditor,

GIRL ASKS FOR $5,000 DAMAGES

BOTH LIVE NEAR NEW SALEM

ment Signed by Jinks Promis-

suit has been filed in the circuit
years old, against Chester L. Jinks.
Miss Manning demands damages in
side in the New Salem neighborhood and both are well known young
Robert Lee Manning, the girl's father,
plaintiff is a minor.

the wedding having been set for
a written memorandum to this ef-
6, 1915 she plaintiff promised the defendant to marry him upon Aug.
6, 1916.

complaint is as follows: "August 6,
ust 6, 1916. Chester Jinks."

The plaintiff alleges that since she
lay in preparing for the wedding.
She claims that on August 6, 1916
she requested him to marry her and
fused. Miss Manning asserts that Jinks is the father of her child,
torium in this city where she recent-
pendicitis.

great humiliation, embarrassment,
mortification, disgrace, distress of
been damaged in the sum of $5,000.

Duncan and A. L. Gary.

loss had not been advertised, I
ring."

The loss and subsequent recovery
went to the greenhouse.

day after it was lost. It was on

Thursday night that Mr. Betker,
while cleaning the ring, lost it in his own bathroom and he was considerably mystified when he failed to discover it any place in the house.
a thorough examination of the trap.
Mr. Betker now believes that he
alcohol as he thought. It is his op-
peared.

After making a careful search
an automobile. Arriving at the greenhouse, Mr. Tompkins did not stop
was compelled to jump from the automobile. When he made the leap,
trousers' cuff.

Admits, However, That he Suc-

For pure, unadulterated "never-
great west, seems to win the medal.
He now lives in Jefferson, Iowa,
that Perkins "never" did. Here it is:

versary.

Those were not Perkins' only
claims to a niche in the hall of fame,

he came here in 1853, has been out
build the first house in the county.

But he rode in an automobile,
fun.

Mrs. Perkins has as many claims
to distinction as her husband has.
and she has not been out of the
with her parents in 1854.

"The old man's got nothing on
versary celebration. "I've been mar-

Jefferson is in Green county, it is
Jefferson.

TO DARKEN HAIR

APPLY SAGE TEA

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 50-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

The Mystic will show the three act drama "Power" for the first picture tonight. Nell Craig and Sydney Ainsworth are featured. The second is a drama "The Turquoise Mine Conspiracy." Marian Sais and Grace Bookman are featured. Tomorrow the three act feature "Love's Law" will be shown.

At the Shubert Murat Theatre, Indianapolis for the entire week beginning next Monday, Richard Walton Tully will present "The Masquerader," a play in three acts and a prologue by John Hunter Booth, and founded on the popular novel of the same name by Katherine Cecil Thurston. There will be regular Matinees Wednesday and Saturday and a special matinee on Thursday Thanksgiving Day.

To this play Mr. Tully has brought all the great talent he has heretofore displayed in the construction of unusual and beautiful settings. His productions of "The Rose of the Rancho," "The Bird of Paradise," and "Omar the Tentmaker," will be remembered for the wonderful settings in which they were placed and it is said that his latest work is not less notable in this respect.

The story of "The Masquerader," has to do with two men who look exactly alike. They exchange places and the man who has never succeeded before makes a great and triumphant success. Incidentally he falls in love with the other man's wife. On the political as well as the sentimental side the play is fraught with possibilities for intense drama, and the intriguing story of the book is completely retained in the play.

For Mr. Post this play holds a part which enables him to do wonderful acting. He has many fine creations to his credit in the past but it is said that this one will be particularly notable. He plays a double role.

In support of the star will be seen a company of names in which will be familiar to all who know their theatre. It includes Louis Calvert, Thais Lawton, Ian Robertson, Florence Malone, Clarence Handysides, Milano Tilden, Nina Lindsay, Ruby Gordon and others.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Guttman and son, Ervin, of Connersville and the Misses Rose Budd and Hazel Joseph of Cincinnati motored to this city Tuesday for a short visit with relatives and friends.

Community Loyalty

It will not be long now until the holiday shopping will be in full swing, and before it opens we wish to have a few words with our fellow citizens on the question of how and where this holiday money is to be spent.

Whence came the money that you are intending to send to that mail order concern? Did it come from the city in which that concern is located? Not by a long shot. If you are a farmer it is the product of the soil. What soil? Why, the soil of your community. Now you, as a practical farmer, know full well the results of the ruinous practice of taking everything from your land and returning nothing to it. You know that this practice must sooner or later impoverish your soil and destroy your source of income.

Can't you realize that in sending your money away from home you are doing to the community just what you would not think of doing to your farm. Every dollar sent away from your community robs it of just that much of its power for good.

But perhaps you are not a farmer, but a mechanic, or trader. Then the responsibility rests even more heavily upon you to keep your money in the home channels of trade, because all of it came from the hard earnings of your neighbors

Every day you clean the house you live in to get rid of the dust and dirt which collected through the previous day. Your body, the house your soul lives in, also becomes filled up each twenty-four hours with all manner of filth and poison. If only every man and woman could realize the wonders of drinking phosphated hot water, what a gratifying change would take place.

Everyone whether sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate "in it" to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the dirty feet or bowels do.

Is a Hog Like This Worth 20 Cts. More Than a Hog Like This?

YET—the fat, sleek one at the left cost only 20 cents more to bring to market—size than the weak, sickly "specimen" at the right, due to the use of Avalon Farms HOG-TONE.

This remedy—tried out thoroughly on the well-known Avalon Farms (in Indiana, near Ft. Wayne) has wrought wonderful results with hogs. It absolutely removes deadly Throat Wounds—Stomach Worms—Liver Worms—Lung and Bronchial Worms. HOG-TONE not only keeps the hogs free from worms, in addition it is a first-class general conditioner—stimulates secretory and digestive organs. Thus it spurs on their appetites, makes them grow faster, gives them the ability to get more flesh-building good out of feed.

There is nothing else like it. Farmers know its wonderful hog-saving, money-making value. We want every hog raiser to know of it—to try it on his hogs.

We have stocked Avalon Farms HOG-TONE because we believe it is a real money maker for the hog grower. Come in and talk to us about it.

Yes, we say no right. No man has any right to be disloyal to his community. Deprive any man entirely of community support and he becomes a pariah—worse than a Robinson Crusoe, for he is among his kind but not of them. What loneliness could be more terrible?

Just suppose, you patron of the mail order house, that for a period of twelve months every citizen of your country followed your example and did all of his trading away from home? What condition would your county be in? Would there be a solvent merchant in it? Not one. What of your schools, your churches, and all the civilizing institutions of our land? They might still survive if you bare all expense—not otherwise.

Think seriously of these things you patron of the mail order house. Realize that if you have the right to deprive your community of your money, all your neighbors have equal right—then imagine the consequences.

Don't be an ingrate! If you have a dollar to spend, spend it at home. Thus it stays in the only spot on God's earth in which you are interested. Send it away and it is gone forever.

EVANS TO CLING TO HIS TITLES

Says All Aspirants For the Honors Next Year Will Have to Display Real Golf.

BY HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
New York, Nov. 23.—When Chick Evans, the national open and amateur golf champion, visited New York recently after his triumph at the Merion club, Philadelphia, he told the United Press that in winning the national amateur championship he had vaulted into the highest point of his life's ambitions.

Fact of the matter is that it was just this point—considered the champion's weakest—which enabled him to defeat Robert Gardner for the national title, and which carried him to victory in the open tournament some time earlier. Of course, there were few times when Evans' nerves were strained by the nature of the putts he was forced to make, but the fact that he had lost many matches in his long career as a tournament player through poor putting made his performance stand out.

"I have learned to drive as I never drove before," Evans said.

"My machie shots have improved all summer and I want to say right here that it was with the greatest elation that I finished off the hole which gave me the title."

Evans several times has been runner-up in national tourneys and has finished there or thereabouts in many high class meets, but the one big plum he was after the national amateur tournament—always has been just out of his reach.

Evans assured the United Press that if some golfer is to take the championship from him next year he'll have to play some regular championship golf to do it.

Princeton, Ind., Nov. 23.—The high price of coal has caused farmers near Princeton to believe they can make more money out of stripping their land and selling the coal which lies underneath than they can out of farming.

Such drastic action is not necessary, according to a statement made to the United Press today by H. L. Snodgrass, assistant state entomologist.

Spraying of apple trees is the proper method of elimination of cedar rust, according to Snodgrass. The trees must be sprayed several times a year and must be given careful attention to be kept free from rust.

Miss Dora Saxon entertained the this afternoon.

The pitch-in supper, which was to have been given tomorrow evening for the members of the Embroidery Club at the home of Mrs. John A. been postponed until Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Innis are entertaining at their pretty, country home near Milroy with a series of Rook parties. Last evening, 24 of their friends from Milroy were invited in to spend a jolly evening playing Rook. Delicious refreshments were served late during the affair.

This evening, the same number of guests are to be entertained with a similar affair. The guests are to be from Milroy.

Mrs. W. S. Coleman and Mrs. Roy Mayse, both of whom formerly lived in Carthage, entertained several of their mutual friends from there today. A prettily appointed dinner was served at the home of Mrs. Coleman at noon today for the guests and part of the day was spent at the home of Mrs. Mayse.
The old friends reuniting in this delightful way were: Mrs. Fred White, Mrs. F. M. Miller, Miss Hazel Hill, Miss Helen Gause, all of Carthage, and Miss Ada Brown of Charlottesville.

A birthday surprise was given at noon today for Mary Louise Miller by her mother, Mrs. Harry Sparks, at their home in North Jackson street when a number of girl friends came in for dinner. With a birthday cake on which were the dates, 1902-1916, the center of the table was prettily decorated. A delicious course meal was served to the guests including Helen Thomas, Helen Matlock, Joan Weakley, Esther Wagener, Laverne Bishop and Ruby Sparks.

An announcement of interest in this city is that of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Powell, who until a few years ago made her home in this city. Since that time she has made frequent visits here, renewing her acquaintances. The following account of her announcement is from the Fort Wayne Journal.

Twenty young lady friends of Miss Elizabeth Powell were invited to her home in New Haven, to an eight o'clock luncheon, Friday evening. The party proved to be one of charming appointments and the nature of it was a complete surprise to everyone present for Miss Powell announced her engagement to Charles J. Corleyou, of Connersville. The rooms were decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums and a color scheme of red and white was carried out in the dining room. A large red bell was suspended over the dining table from which white ribbons led to each plate and held souvenirs of red and white carnations for the guests. A pull at the ribbon brought down a shower of red hearts, which when opened, displayed the photographs of Miss Powell and her fiancee. Just before the heart shower a telegram was brought to the house and handed to Miss Aileen Ashley, who read it aloud to the assembled guests, and in this manner the engagement was announced. The table held a center arrangement of red and white carnations and a four course luncheon was served, the ice cream being frozen into the shape of cupid. Miss Powell received the hearty congratulations of her friends.

A short meeting of Tri Kappa was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Knecht last evening when several matters of business importance were discussed by the members.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Harrold were pleasantly surprised last night on the occasion of their fifth wedding anniversary, by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Neutzenhelzer and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harrold, and families. A bountiful pitch-in supper was served.

The third meeting of the Donnan class will be held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. G.
Hackleman in North Morgan street.
At the last meeting, Miss Donnan announced that she would talk on Georgian Poetry, 1913-1915, and "The Brook Kerith" by George Morris.

At the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eskew about 45 guests enjoyed a pitch-in supper Saturday evening. The home was decorated with pink and white carnations. While games were being played and the guests were enjoying a general good time, beautiful music was furnished on the grafonola.

The banquet given at the Masonic Temple last evening was attended by 65 Knights Templar. The tables were lit by red candles and a two-course banquet was served. Following, there was an informal program of after-dinner talks. Will M.
Sparks, Will McMillin, and Dr. J. B.
Kinsinger all gave short and appropriate speeches. During the evening, the Temple degree was conferred.

The Ladies Aid society of the First Baptist church had the regular weekly meeting yesterday afternoon with Mrs. B. W. Reynolds, when the ladies spent a busy afternoon in preparation for the bazaar. On account of the church not being completed by that time, it was necessary to postpone the bazaar and penny supper which to have been held on Tuesday of next week, until Friday December 8th.

There will be a mask party and oyster supper at the Circleville schoolhouse on Monday evening, November 27th at 8 o'clock. Everyone is invited to come and a good time is assured. There will be fortune tellers; a large angel food cake for the best masked person; a box of candy to be given away; peanut races; and a bowl of oyster soup for a nickel; and many other attractions. The teachers in charge of the social are the Misses Jessie Gillispie, Edith Hogsett, and Lois Bussell.

The local chapter of the W. R. C. made a very favorable impression upon Mrs. Groves of Knightstown who came to inspect the chapter yesterday afternoon. The inspection was made at the Red Men hall when the degree work was conferred Aside from Mrs. Groves, out-of-town members of the order present were Mrs. Mary Conover of Arizona, a charter member of the organization; Mrs. Elizabeth Pearsey, who recently moved to Muncie and was senior vice-president of the Corps; Mrs. Round of Knightstown; and Mrs. Phillips of Arlington.

Pink and white was the dainty color scheme carried out at the meeting of the Day Time Club held with Mrs. Louis C. Hiner at her home in North Willow street yesterday afternoon. Chrysanthemums and candles of these shades decorated the dining table, where the guests were seated for an elegant two course luncheon, after enjoying a social afternoon together. Mrs.
Walter Hall, one of the club members has recently moved to Shelbyville, and all of the members but one were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Roscoe Ward.

Every one invited to come to our Box Social and penny supper at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening, at 5:30 o'clock. 21612

An Indiana branch of the Federal end of the "Woman Movement"— known officially as the Women and Girls Division of the U. S. Employment Service, has been opened in Indianapolis, with headquarters in Room 235, Federal Building, with Mrs. Grace Porter Hopkins, of the U. S. Department of Labor, temporarily in charge.

The purpose of this new branch of Governmental service is to supply employment to the women and girls of the State. If no position of the kind desired are available in Indiana, an effort will be made to secure one through an interchange and interstate system between zones and offices of the United States Employment Service, co-operating with other States and municipal employment offices; also with co-operating employment committees in churches, women's federated clubs and other organizations.

Special attention will be given to requests of women wage earners for work and every effort will be made to meet the demand for female help in farming and rural communities as well as in the cities. Girls and young women will also be helped to select suitable vocations and directed to elementary and vocational training with a view to developing more efficient wage earners, the avoidance of occupations and places where evil conditions exist, as well as protection from exploitation and misdirection will be no small part of this branch of the work.

The co-operation of employers is invited in developing this plan for a clearing house of information with reference to employment; likewise the aid and assistance of women and other organizations is being sought by correspondence and other ways.

Applicants will be classified as to age so that only those over the age of 18 years shall be considered for or directed to employment; all those approaching as well as those above the latter age, will be given the information on hand in aid of vocational selection and training.
Opportunities will be classified in accordance with the practice followed in public employment offices in the vicinity, if any exist; if not, then according to the trades and vocations there established, and divided in three classes as follows: temporary, seasonal, and permanent.

Applicants will be furnished information about opportunities listed

The modern housewife does not convert her home into a factory, at least to the extent of making it more of an industrial institution than it is a home. Instead of baking their own bread, thousands of housewives are getting it from the bakery. Likewise, canned goods are not put up in the home, but purchased from the grocer. Clothing is not made in the home, as in the days of your grandmother; it is purchased outside, and delivered to you, ready to wear. Then why not do the logical thing in another case, and send your household linens and washable apparel to a modern power laundry? Washing and ironing are factory processes, that for at least one day in each week render the average home almost uninhabitable. Perhaps you have found this out, and are having all or part of your laundering done in the home of a washerwoman. If you will let us do your laundering, you can rest assured that it is being done under sanitary conditions and in a sanitary manner.

Give us a trial order, and then you will be a regular customer—happy and care free on Monday, as far as laundering is concerned.

RALEIGH SCHOOL ITEMS.

The boys of room three lead the girls in their daily attendance this week.

The second grade girls are busy making raffi doll hats.

There have been more absence this week in room one than during any week this term.

The attendance of room two has suffered this past week on account of a threatened epidemic of measles and mumps. Every effort is being exercised to prevent an epidemic.

Mr. Fox has just finished a course of exercises on the life, country, and work of Shakespeare.

The girls of the seventh and eighth grades will give the opening exercises on Wednesday morning of this week.

The local five played basket ball with Spiceland Academy's five last Friday night. The game was won by Spiceland boys.

The memory gem for the second room is:

He lost the game; no matter for that—

He kept his temper, and swung his bat

To cheer the winners. A better way Than to lose his temper and win, that day.

and advised for placement according to their abilities and training with a view to their advancement to better opportunities and their progress in efficiency as wage earners.
When placements are made confirmation thereof from employers should be secured by mail, telephone, or personal visit, when practicable. In addition an effort will be made to ascertain also the pro-bilities of continuance of such placement, and the progress made by the applicant. When visits are made existing conditions will be observed and noted.

MUST HAVE LARGER TIPS GIVES MEN NEW LEASE ON LIFE

(By United Press.)
St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 23.—The ten cent tip in St. Paul was officially tabooed by resolutions of the Hotel Belmop of St. Paul today. As the intermission between the ice-water glide and the suitcase shuffle, at the annual bell-ringing ball, resolutions were passed urging that tips be raised to 15 cents on account of the war. During the ball, the orchestra director was under orders to ring no bells with the music, and no water pitchers were allowed in sight. What is the use of taking the joy out of life? E. J. Ryan, president of the club, said.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Musterole Gives Delicious Comfort

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on the temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.
Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.
Many doctors and nurses actively recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). ### Head of Medical Corps Declares Work at Mexican Border Adds Years to Lives of Men.

DIET IS CONSIDERED IDEAL

BY WEBB MILLER.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
El Paso, Tex., Nov. 23.—About 150,000 years is being added to the aggregate life of the population of the United States by the Mexican "situation." Instead of spreading death and disablement the campaign in Mexico and the mobilization of the national guard is adding from a few months to years to the life of every civilian soldier, army physicians declare. Statisticians have figured that the average added to the life of each guardsman will be nearly a year.

After four to six months of training like an athlete, working in the open air, sleeping in a tent and eating simple food a hundred thousand guardsmen will go back to civil life with a new lease on life.

Major James F. Edwards of the medical corps of the Pennsylvania militia has been making a close study of the general effects of the intensive training upon these men drawn from office, factory and farm. In civil life he is director of Public Health of the city of Pittsburgh.

"But most important is the effect of the army diet. Most civilians eat too much. And intemperance in eating is more dangerous than any other form of intemperance. For four months our men have been eating the simple palatable army ration. They don't eat too much and the food value of what they get is computed scientifically. This regime with plenty of exercise cannot fail to add something to the lives of our citizen soldiers."

"But there is no pleasing everybody. To the man undergoing this training it sometimes loses the vacation—physical training tinge and becomes just hard labor."

—by keeping your teeth REALLY CLEAN.
"But," you say, "I brush my teeth regularly, yet they decay." Yes, you brush them, but do you REALLY CLEAN them? Tonight, after brushing your teeth, examine them closely. You will likely find an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding in the crevices.
Decay, as well as the dangerous gum disease called Pyorrhea, usually develops only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present. SENRECO, the formula of a dental specialist, keeps the teeth REALLY CLEAN. It embodies specially prepared soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. ## WILSON REPLIES TO HUGHES MESSAGE

President Answers Defeated Candidate's Telegram Congratulating Him on His Re-election

Washington, Nov. 23.—President Wilson today replied to the message of Charles E. Hughes congratulating the president on his re-election saying:

Hughes Message

Washington, N. J., Nov. 23.—Charles E. Hughes, republican candidate for President in the recent election, last night sent to President Wilson a telegram congratulating him upon his re-election. In his telegram Mr. Hughes said:

"Because of the closeness of the vote, I have awaited the official count in California and now that it has been virtually completed, permit me to extend to you my congratulations upon your re-election. I desire also to express my best wishes for a successful administration."

Marshall replied immediately, saying:

MAN NEVER SHAVES, RIDES ON TRAIN OR GOES TO SHOW

Jefferson. The town is on the main line of the North Western and 24 passenger trains, run through the town every day. And neither Mr. nor Mrs. Perkins have ever been on a train.

After 79 years of life without having touched a razor to his face, Mr. Perkins has a beard that is the wonder of the small boys and the nightmare of the barbers—the latter fearing that some day or other he will take a notion to see his own features and will come into their shop to get his beard shaved off.

Sixty-two years ago Perkins left his home in Rushville, Ind., to seek his fortune in the west. Another young fellow came along with him. The friend had a team and wagon and the two boys drove every mile of the way. When they reached what is now Green county they decided they had found the place for which they were looking, so they stopped off.

Shortly thereafter young Perkins helped build the first house in Jefferson. It was a one-room log affair and housed the post-office, hotel storeroom, the county records and office of the county judge, as well as a living room for the postmaster and his wife.

The next year settlers from the east began pouring into western Iowa and Perkins met and married Miss Nancy Tucker, who had come with her father, from Tippecanoe county, Indiana, making the trip in a wagon just as Mr. Perkins had done.

The only time since they came to the state that either Mr. or Mrs. Perkins has been outside the boundaries of Iowa was about 1857 when they drove over into Minnesota for the harvest and Mr. Perkins worked in the wheat fields. Then they returned to Jefferson and neither has been across the Missouri of the Mississippi. In fact, they have scarcely been outside the county in all those years.

The Perkins-Tucker wedding was the first to be celebrated in the county. The husband was 19 years old and the girl but 16.

The state contended that this constituted a game of chance as it was not certain who would win. The checks given the winners were good for tobacco, cigars, pop and merchandise carried by the firm. The defense on cross-examination always brought out from the witnesses that they never went there for the purpose of gambling, that the door was never barred and there was no one acting as lookout to admit the men to the place. The defense also brought out that the interior of the room was plainly visible from the street and that there was no indication on the part of the defendants that they were keeping a place for gaming, as charged in the indictment.

Among those who testified for the state were Elsbury Pea, Charles Pea, Alex Sorrell, Charles Wiley, Fred Hatfield, Jesse Sorrell, Charles Bennett, William Hardin, Patrick Hunt and Edward Gordon. All told practically the same story and each stated on cross-examination that they never went to the place with the intentions of gambling.

No much difficulty was had in securing a jury, which for the most part was composed of farmers. The jury was as follows: Edwin Megee, Samuel R. Newhouse, William A. Lord, John McCoy, M. A. McDonald, Eli Jinks, A. L. Chew, Bert Cohee, David T. Kirkpatrick, Rue Miller, George Keisling, John Manzy.

Prosecutor Stevens this morning filed a written motion to dismiss the intoxication charge against George Hoffman for the reason that he is of unsound mind. The motion was sustained by the court.

No One Should Scorn Thrift

It is so very easy to say "Save money; put a certain amount away every week." But, oh, how hard it is to do. It just seems as though that dollar, or dime as the case may be, means a great deal to us when it comes to laying it away.

Every working girl, whether she receives a large remuneration or small, should endeavor to save some of it. I realize that sometimes every dollar is needed in the home; but then, five or ten cents may be spared. Depriving oneself of anything from a stick of gum to a ukelele will prove a moral victory and a comfort after the first pang it over.

Thrift is to be striven for by everyone of us. We all admire the thrift which is found in the German make-up, or that of the French and Belgians. These people conscientiously save whenever they can, and make a dollar go twice as far as most of us. The people of these nationalities can easily teach us a lesson here.

I am practicing what I preach in this instance, for every week when I draw my salary at the cashier's window, I lay aside a certain amount for a reserve. In fact, I immediately hand the money to my

secretary and she sees that it is deposited in bank that same afternoon. Of course when I first entered the movies I had to be content with a small saving every week. As my salary increased my deposit increased accordingly, and at present I have a savings account separate from my drawing account, and of which I am most proud.

The Hot Blast Furnace

Read what Mr. J. B. Howard, the inventor of the FLORENCE, has to say:

If any stove manufacturer or dealer can produce a Jointless Leg Bottom and Base with Full Radiation outside the Hot Blast Air Tight Florence Base, I will give him $5,000. This offer holds good until the first of January, 1917.

(Signed) J. B. HOWARD.

The HOT BLAST AIR TIGHT FLORENCE is the only stove that was ever made and is on the face of the earth today that has a JOINTLESS LEG BOTTOM AND BASE WITH FULL RADIATION, and that means as good a fire-keeper twenty-five years from now as it is today.

The above offer includes every stove manufacturer and dealer, or any stove that was ever made. This offer holds good until January 1st, 1917, because Mr. Howard does not pretend to know what will be on the market in 1917, but he does know what is on the market in 1916.
